Statement of- Kuda Ali aged 33, residing at- Mandi Pali Mysore-

The petitioners Mirza Imam ali and Mirza Nayaz Mandali are my sons- The former died on 11th April/11 at- Mysore - The other is now present- before the office -

The deceased Bi Begum has two sons viz (1) Mir Jaffer ali (2) Mir Khagim ali. Both these sons left their mother Bi Begum at- Mysore and went- away to- Chamarajnagar some 15- or 16 years ago- Ever since then they have not- returned to- Mysore - Ever since then the said Bi Begum lived with her sister Hayath-Begum my mother in law. On the death of- the late Imam alikhan all his six daughters were granted a pension of- Rs 6-0-9 each- The above Bi Begum and Hayath Begum being his daughters got- a pension of- Rs 6-0-9 each and the deceased Bi Begum entirely depended upon her pension for her maintenance - Her sons named above did not even turn up to observe the funeral rites of the deceased lady - I attended to them at my own expense - As her sons mentioned above divided her mother long ago she used to like my children, as all of us lived together -

The above said Mir Jaffer ali is unmarried - The second Son Mir Kazim ali is a widower and has a son by name Mahamed ali -

As the deceased's sons divided their mother long ago, the pension enjoyed by her may kindly be granted to my Son Mirza Narayan Mandali.
